Joining Instructions for RFMA Cadex Kraken Multi-Caliber Course

Introduction

Welcome to the RFMA Cadex Kraken Multi-Caliber Course. This is a custom designed entry level course offered exclusively by Rob Furlong's Marksmanship Academy and delivered by world class instructors. This course is an intense, interactive training opportunity for all participants running over a two-day period. The course contains a large amount of information and skills to absorb and process in a short amount of time. You are encouraged to take in as much of the course as possible to gain insight into the methods and techniques taught during this training as well as the teaching philosophy of our instructors. We ask participants to attend course with a professional attitude, and open mind. This will allow for the largest amount of material retention, and provide the best learning atmosphere for everyone.

The classroom and range portion of the course will be held at the RFMA private training facility. Travel time to the range is 26 minutes from Youngstown, Alberta. Please see directions heading further down on this document. Detailed joining instructions will be forwarded to students prior to the start of course.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us anytime. We look forward to seeing you on the range.

Dress and Equipment

We will be conducting all training outside on our shooting platform, so no matter what the weather is like, training will be going ahead. Please dress according to the weather, as we will be outside 8-9 hours depending on range applications. Conditions can include dust, mud, rain, snow, wind and extremes of temperature. Check the local Youngstown forecast prior to departure, and pack dress appropriate to weather conditions.

Recommended clothing items to have on hand are listed below:

- Hiking type boots
- Rain gear
- Cold weather clothing
- Gloves
- Cap or Toque
- Hat (for sun protection)
- Water bottle
- Day pack

Equipment needed while on course:

- Your Cadex Kraken Multi-caliber system (minimum 2 caliber system is required to partake in the training).
- 140 rounds of match grade ammo (must be same type and weight). If attending course with reloaded ammo, the rounds MUST be loaded with the same projectile, casing, power, and primer. This is to ensure consistency during range applications.
- Optics with tactical type adjustable turrets, in either MOA or Mils
- Anti-can't Bubble level mounted to your scope.
- Shooting mat of some sort (RFMA has limited number of mats that students are welcome to use)
- Spotting scope with tri-pod (RFMA has limited number of spotters that students are welcome to use)
- Small calculator (students typically use their smart phones)
- Shooting bag / shooting sock (RFMA has limited number of shooting bags that students are welcome to use)
- Writing material (pencil, pens & paper)
- Cleaning supplies for your rifle
- Tools for your rifle & optic system
- Hearing & eye protection

Safety

This is our number one concern when instructing. Our instructors have complete control of the range when instructing, and directions must be followed by participants to ensure the safety of everyone. RFMA reserves the right to remove a participant(s) from course who is determined to be a risk to safety. If you observe any unsafe actions or feel uncomfortable conducting any of the drills or shooting exercises, please advise the nearest RFMA instructor.
